NOTICE

It is the intention of the Board of Supervisors of Appomattox County to adopt at its regular meeting to be held on October 12th, 1960 the following ordinance, to-wit:

An ordinance to be known as an ordinance to regulate the operation of vehicles on the highways of said county and towns therein and to prescribe penalties for violations of the said ordinance.

Be it ordained by the Board of County Supervisors of Appomattox County, Virginia, that there is hereby adopted an ordinance to be known as an ordinance to regulate the operation of motor vehicles on the highways of the County of Appomattox, State of Virginia, and defining and setting forth prescribed penalties for the violation of such ordinance.

(a) Reckless driving; general rule. Irrespective of the maximum speeds herein provided, any person who drives a vehicle upon a highway recklessly or at a speed or in a manner so as to endanger life, limb or property of any person shall be guilty of reckless driving; provided that the driving of a motor vehicle of any speed limit provision of subsection D hereof shall not of itself constitute ground for prosecution for reckless driving under this subsection.

(b) Same; specific instances. A person shall be guilty of reckless driving who shall:

(1) Drive a vehicle when not under proper control or with inadequate or improperly adjusted brakes upon any highway of this State;

(2) While driving a vehicle, overtake and pass another vehicle proceeding in the same direction, upon or approaching the crest of a grade or upon approaching a curve in the highway, where the driver's view along the highway is obstructed, except where the overtaking vehicle is being operated on a highway having two or more designated lanes of roadway for each direction of travel or on a designated one-way street or highway;

(3) Drive a vehicle when it is so loaded, or when there are in the front seat such number of persons as to obstruct the view of the driver to the front or sides of the vehicle or to interfere with the driver's control over the driving mechanism of the vehicle;

(4) Pass or attempt to pass two other vehicles abreast, moving in the same direction, except on highways having separate roadways of three or more lanes for each direction of travel, or on designated one-way streets or highways;

(5) Overtake or pass any other vehicle proceeding in the same direction at any steam, diesel or electric railway grade crossing or at any intersection of highways unless such vehicles are being operated on a highway having two or more designated lanes of roadway for each direction of travel, or on a designated one-way street or highway, or while pedestrians are passing or about to pass in front of either of such vehicles, unless permitted so to do by a traffic light or police officers;

(6) Fail to stop at a school bus stopped on the highway for the purpose of taking on or discharging school children, when approaching the same from any direction and to remain stopped until all school children are clear of the highway and the bus is put in motion, provided, however, that this shall apply only to school buses marked or identified as provided in the regulation of the State Board of Education;

(7) Fail to give adequate and timely signals of intention to turn, partly turn, slow down or stop, as required by 46.1-216 through 46.1-220; of the Code of Virginia;

(8) Exceed a reasonable speed under the circumstances and traffic conditions existing at the time regardless of any posted speed limit;

(9) Drive a motor vehile upon the highways of this State and County at a speed in excess of 75 miles per hour;

(10) Fail to bring his vehicle to a stop immediately before entering a highway from a side road when there is traffic approaching upon such highway within five hundred feet of such point of entrance, unless a "Yield Right of Way" sign is posted; or where such sign is posted, fail, upon entering such highway, to yield the right of way to the driver of a vehicle approaching on such highway from either direction;

(11) Drive or operate any automobile or other motor vehicle upon any driveway or premises of a church, or school or of any recreational facilities of any business property or of the public, recklessly or at a speed or in a manner so as to endanger the life, limb or property of any person.

(c) Same; penalties. Every person convicted of reckless driving under section (a) or section (b) above set forth shall for the first violation be punished by a fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $300.00 or by a jail sentence of not exceeding thirty days either or both such fine and jail sentence for each second or subsequent conviction for the offence of reckless driving under section (a) and (b) above set forth committed within twelve months before or after the date of another act of reckless driving for which he has been convicted, such persons shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50.00 or more than $300.00 or by imprisonment in jail not less than ten days nor more than thirty days or both such fine and imprisonment.

(d) Maximum and minimum speed limits; posting, etc. of school zones. No person shall drive any vehicle upon a highway of this County at a speed in excess of:

(1) Fifty-five miles per hour if the vehicle is a passenger motor vehicle, passnger bus, pick-up or panel truck not exceeding an actual gross weight of 5,000 pounds, or a motorcycle;

(2) Forty-five miles per hour if the vehicle is a truck, road tractor, tractor-truck, or combination of vehicles designed to transport property or is a motor vehicle being used to tow a vehicle designed of self-propulsion of a house trailer;

(3) Thirty-five miles per hour if the vehicle is being used as a school bus carrying children;

(4) Forty-five miles per hour if the vehicle or combination of vehicles is operating under a special permit issued by the State Highway Commission in accordance with the 1950 Code of Virginia and amendments thereto Sections 46.1-330 and 46.1-343. The State Highway Commission may, however, prescribe a speed limit of less than forty-five miles per hour on any permit issued in accordance with Code Section 46.1-330 and 46.1-343.

(5) Twenty-five miles per hour in a business or residential district unless otherwise prescribed by the proper authorities of any incorporated town in the said county.

(6) Thirty-five miles per hour in any incorporated town in the said County unless otherwise prescribed by proper authorities of the said town.

(7) Any person violating this section or any provision thereof shall be guilty of a misdeamenor and upon conviction thereof punished by fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $300.00 or by confinement in jail not exceeding a period of thirty days, either or both such fine and imprisonment.

Effective Date: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect after its passage by the Board of Supervisors of Appomattox County, Virginia, on October 12th, 1960, and after the same has been published in full or its title and informative summary of the substance of the said ordinance has been published for two weeks in The Times-Virginian, a weekly newspaper published in the County of Appomattox, Virginia and thereafter until repealed by proper action by the Board of Supervisors for the County of Appomattox, State of Virginia.

IN MEMORIAM

In and but loving remembrance of our dear Daddy, A. B. Ferguson, who passed away eight years ago today, Sept. 29, 1952.
Eight long and lonely years ago today,
Dear Daddy, you quietly slipped away.
To rest in the arms of Jesus.
We will never forget that day,
Some think we have forgotten you,
When they see us smile;
But they little know the sorrow
That we suffer all the while.
No one knows our sorrow,
A few have seen us weep,
But the way our hearts ache
For you, dear Daddy, and wish
You were here to guide us along
The rough ways as you always did.
All we can do now, dear Daddy,
Is remember the lessons you taught
us and try to follow you,
For we know you are safe with Jesus, where no harm can reach you and waiting to greet us when we get there.
As we go to your grave and place flowers, we breathe a prayer that some day we will meet you,
where there will always be happiness.
—Sadly missed by Your Children

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of wife and mother, Mrs. C. D. Drinkard, who passed away six years ago, Sept. 17, 1954.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we love to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thoughts to reach.
—Sadly missed by Husband and Children.
